is absent from the city, having gone east on business.

THE BORDER VIDETTE wishes all of its readers and friends a happy and prosperous New Year.

Miss Kessie, the accomplished daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. C. L.
Fowler, is home for the holidays.
The young lady is attending college at Tucson.

Major Stout, who has been quite ill, was able to be on the street the first of the week, to the delight of his friends.

Last Sunday Jake Kissinger and a party of friends visited the oil belt north of the city. Mr. Kissinger knows a thing or two about oil, and oil lands.

F. F. Cranz, ex-mayor of Nogales, has for several days past been confined to his home, suffering with a severe cold. His wide circle of friends hope for his speedy, complete recovery.

Attorney and Mrs. Frank J. Duffy spent Christmas over in Parker Canyon, this county, with Mrs. Duffy's parents, at their splendid ranch home.
Wednesday they returned to Nogales, having greatly enjoyed their visit to the country.

Ranger John Clark has returned from Douglas, where he went on official business. Under Sergeant Will Old's instruction, John has become one of the best officers in the Ranger service. He is a Nogales boy, and we are proud of him.

Pete Munch, ticket agent for the Southern Pacific Company at the local office, is taking a lay-off, and will leave in a day or two for St. Joseph, Missouri, where he will enjoy a short visit with his family who are spending the holidays there with his mother.

This week Captain O'Connor, the mining man, and Mike Doyle, who is willing to become a mine owner, visited Captain O'Connor's property, over Washington Camp way. Captain O'- Connor some time ago disposed of a group of splendid claims for a handsome sum.

Marshall P. Wright, the mining man, spent Christmas in the city, being a guest at the Montezuma hotel.
The gentleman has been to Cananea-Midland Copper Company of which he is vice president. From here he will go to Cananea.

Mr. Joe Faymonville, the fire insurance agent, is back from Hermosillo, where he spent Christmas with his nephew, Roy Faymonville, manager of the Hermosillo Electric Light Company. Fay says he had a pleasant visit, and returned home feeling fine and dandy.

"Senator" Bo. J. Whiteside, territorial legislative assemblyman-elect from Santa Cruz county, and County Recorder Phil Herold are enjoying the holidays in San Francisco. During Recorder Herold's absence from the city, Judge M. Marsteller is looking after the business of his office.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry of Minas Prietas, Sonora, were visitors here Monday. Mr. Perry has for a number of years been general superintendent of the Grand Central mines; he and his charming wife are among the most popular Americans in the state of Sonora. They have a pleasant home where the "latch-string is always out."

Patt R. Sullivan, secretary of the Board of Trade, is proving by his work, that he is the right man for the responsible position; he is an indefatigable worker for the welfare of the county and city. When the board of directors appointed Patt they made no mistake; their selection meets the approval of the majority of the members of the Board of Trade.

Richard Brady, president of the Brady-Levin Commission Company of this city, was a business visitor here yesterday from Tucson, his home.
This morning he returned north.
Recently Mr. Brady returned from the east where he purchased two train-loads of cattle for his big Arizona ranch. The gentleman is also largely interested in Tucson real estate.

Mr. Johnson of Bisbee, an experienced mechanic, has for several days past been busy installing a splendid Arcolight system in The Palace, Cala-ham & Reagan's popular Morley avenue sporting house. The system is from the Yale Manufacturing Co., of Chicago; when Mr. Johnson turns it over, The Palace will be the best lighted place of its kind in the southwest.

Frank Turner, the well known, successful mining man, who for several years has been operating in Arizona and Sonora, has this week been a guest at the Montezuma hotel, having just arrived from Mexico City, where he had been on mining business. Mr.
Turner is an extensive traveler, being constantly on the wing. He returns to Nogales looking the picture of health.

Mr. B. Schwob, the well known Nogales, Sonora, merchant, is back from Tucson where he spent Christmas with friends. Mr. Schwob and family resided at the ancient and honorable pueblo a number of years before coming to Nogales. By careful attention to business and fair dealing, Mr. B. Schwob has built up one of the best mercantile business houses in Sonora.

Charley Holler, Jr., formerly of Nogales, now a resident of Guaymas, Sonora, where he holds a responsible position with the Sonora railway company, left Thursday night for the bay city, after having spent Christmas here with relatives and old-time friends. Charley says there is no place quite like Nogales. He has a wide circle of friends here, all of whom were pleased to see him.

Mr. Henry Levin, of the Brady-Levin Commission Company, has returned from Tucson, where he and his family went last week to attend a family, which was held at the home of his sister. All the members of the family where present and a delightful time was had, it being the first gathering of the kind held in several years. Mrs. Levin and the children will return home tonight.

Mr. J. F. Bowman and bride have returned from their honeymoon trip and are now at home to their many friends. Mr. Bowman has in contemplation the erection of a fine residence on his splendid property next to Judge William Neumann's home.
Fred and his estimable bride, stole a march on their friends, but we forgive them and wish them much happiness and everything that is good.

Harry Clarke returned Wednesday night from Tucson where he had been to spend Christmas with old friends and acquaintances. He reports having had a fine time and says the ancient and honorable pueblo is flourishing as never before. A number of old-time citizens of Nogales who now reside there, are getting along fine. Ed.
Finley and the rest of the boys, wish to be remembered to their Nogales friends.

George Sayre, who for several months past has been down at the mines of the Richfield Mining Company, of which H. Gordon Glore, the metallurgist, is superintendent, is enjoying the holiday season in Nogales, with old friends. George says Mr.
Barney Quinn, the contractor, now with the Richfield company, has about completed his contract and will shortly return to Nogales. Barney's many friends here will be glad to see him.

A. I. Cane, M. E., is in from the mountains near Patagonia, where he and John McIntyre, the mining engineer, are successfully developing several good looking mining claims, which they have bonded. Mr. Cane is very enthusiastic over his section, where there is at present great activity in mining. The gentleman says the property of the Happy Jack and other mines near the claims being developed by himself and associate, are looking fine.

D. W. Page, Jr., member of the Wolfe-Pago Mining Agency, of Guaymas, Sonora, was here Monday on a combined business and pleasure visit, returning south the same night. Mr.
Page is a wide awake young business man; he is a Spanish scholar, as is also his partner Dr. Wolfe. The gentlemen are universally liked in Guaymas. They should be easy winners, for they have the respect and confidence of all the good people in the bay city.

Captain Lee Hall, who has a contract to guard the teams of the Giroux Mines Co. between the mines and Carbo, Sonora, spent yesterday, in the city, returning south the last night.
For a number of years the captain was in command of the Texas Rangers.
He also served the United States in Cuba and the Philippine Islands, with credit. Since Captain Hall and his men entered the service of the big mining company the "bad" Indians have avoided that section of Sonora.

Proto Bros., the pioneer Morley avenue merchants, did the grand on a mammoth scale Christmas, by presented nearly two hundred Nogales families with a nice fat turkey, one of which was left at the humble home of ye editor, who is duly grateful. The generosity displayed by Proto Bros. is most commendable, and highly appreciated by those remembered by Mr. Anton Proto, who personally manages the affairs of the big mercantile establishment, being ably assisted by Mr. J. A. Spink.

Wednesday night County and City Physician H. W. Purdy, and L.
Ephraim, manager of the Nogales Water Company, returned from San Francisco, where the doctor had gone with Mr. Ephraim for the purpose of consulting with specialists of that city regarding the serious condition of Mrs.
Ephraim, who for some time past has been very ill. It is said that very little hopes are entertained for the lady's complete recovery, although everything known to medical science is being done by the fond husband, who has called in consultation the best physicians in the United States.
On account of important private business here, Mr. Ephraim was compelled to return to Nogales, but if his wife becomes worse, he will hurry to her bed-side.

George Tompkins sold his fine black team to Captain Coa, a wealthy resident of Hermosillo and the horses were taken overland today to Nogales from which point they will be shipped to Hermosillo. The team is well matched and was one of best in the city.—Tucson Citizen.

Pete Soto, bookkeeper at El Pinito, Sonora, where the Columbia Consolidated Mining Company, L. M. Raines, general manager, is operating gold properties, having a twenty-stamp mill in commission, spent Christmas in the city with relatives and friends.
Pete says El Pinito is the best camp in Sonora, and Mr. Raines the best mine manager on earth. Christmas Manager and Mrs. Raines treated the boys to a fine turkey dinner. There was also a Christmas tree for Master Hampton, their bright little son, who is the pride and mascot of El Pi-nito.

Among the numerous pleasant home parties Christmas, was that at the home of Mayor and Mrs. John T.
Brickwood. There was a handsome tree glowing with its load of pretty, useful and valuable gifts for all, prepared and arranged under the direction of Mr. A. W. Brickwood, Jr., American Consul at Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, who acted the part of Santa Claus to perfection, in the good old eastern fashion. There was an abundance of nice things to eat, music and a royal time. The occasion will long be pleasantly remembered by those present.

Campbell Hardy, representing the El Paso Daily Herald, has this week been a visitor in the line city, in the interest of his splendid, up-to-date paper. The Herald is a good friend of Arizona, and our people are doing everything possible to show Mr.
Hardy that they appreciate the many kind things his paper has done for his section of the country. Beside being an experienced newspaper man, Mr.
Hardy is a gentleman of the old-school. We take pleasure in commending him and the Herald to all, and hope his stay here will be both pleasant and profitable.

Harry Renshaw has accepted the management of the Washington Trading Company's Nogales business, assuming charge January first. E. E.
Bethell, the efficient manager of the big company, will, it is said, personally superintend the Washington and Patagonia branches, he and his estimable wife making their home at Patagonia. Mr. E. H. Evans, who has for some time past been manager of the Patagonia store, will on the first of the year enter the employ of the Mansfield Smelting & Refining Company, as manager of the company's big store at the Mansfield camp, which is situated a short distance from Patagonia, in the Wrightson mining district.

Fred. Cole, who for six weeks past has been out at El Pinito overhauling the Columbia Consolidated Mining Company's plant, spent yesterday in Nogales, leaving last night for his home at Minas Prietas, Sonora, where he has resided a dozen years or more with his family. Mr. Cole is one of best practical mechanical engineers in the country; he also knows a lot about mines and mining. He says the property of the big company of which L.
M. Raines is general manager, is looking good, both the mill and mine being in splendid shape when he left El Pinito two days ago. He said the new strike recently made, runs better than $150, gold to the ton. He also said the company, in his opinion, needed a cyanide plant, in addition to its present plant.

George Weiland, the prospector and miner, spent Christmas in the city with Mrs. Weiland and the children, returning to the mountains Wednesday. George says he is exploring and developing a group of four copper-lead claims in the Patagonia mining district, which bid fair to become good mines. The claims are for sale and the gentleman invites the inspection of investors. During the past dozen years George has discovered, opened up and sold a number of "good things" situated in Santa Cruz county. He knows a mine from a hole in the ground, and those who know him are not afraid to back his judgment with their money. Mr. Mike Doyle, who has been spending several weeks at Mr. Weiland's camp, returned to the city with him. Mike says he has learned a trick or two about prospecting and mining.

On Wednesday there was an adjoined meeting of the stockholders of the Buena Fortuna Gold Mining Company at the office of Vice-President A. M. Conard in this city. A majority of the stockholders of the company were present either in person or by proxy. Mr. N. J. Purcell, general manager of the company, was chairman, and Mr. Conard secretary of the meeting. A board of seven directors were elected for the ensuing year, and February 15th, next, named the date for a meeting of same, at which time the board will elect officers and transact any business which may come before that body. General Manager Purcell reports exploration and development work in the Pinito mountains, Sonora, progressing in a very satisfactory manner and says he is very anxious to have stockholders pay him a visit.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. William McKnight arrived in the city from Fort Huachuca, where Mr. Mc-Knight furnishes beef for the government. Mrs. McKnight, who is quite ill, immediately went to the Sisters' Hospital, where she will be given every possible attention, and it is hoped her recovery will be speedy and complete. The McNights are well known in Nogales, having resided here when Mr. Knight was in the employ of the government as customs guard.

Mr. William Rosenberg, manager of Rosy's Place, returned Wednesday night from New York where he had been a month, visiting Mrs. Rosenberg and their daughter. While east Mr. Rosenberg purchased a large stock of bargains for his store, some of which have already arrived and are now being offered for sale at bed-rock prices. Mr. Sam Krestell, an experienced young salesman, accompanied Mr. Rosenberg back to Nogales, to accept a clerical position in Rosy's Place. Being a New York bred boy, Sam will take kindly to life in Nogales, the best little town in the United States.

The Messacre at Lencho.

Details of the slaughter of nine Mexican men, women and children last Saturday evening, at Lencho station on the Cananea, Yaqui River & Pacific railroad, beyond the Yaqui river, by a band of renegade Yaqui Indians, continue to reach Nogales. They are most revolting, the helpless women and innocent little children having been literally chopped to pieces by the brutal devils in human form, who appeared without warning and butchered as they went.

It is said that Agent W. D.
Thompson, who with his wife and little son, were the only white people at the station, escaped by crawling under the floor of the train in which they lived.

Before the fiends could complete their awful work, the sound of a locomotive whistle on a work train approaching the scene of the messacre, frightened them away, and the lives of the Americans were saved.

Potam, one of the strongest military posts on the Yaqui river, is only a short distance from Lencho.
There are a large number of Mexican soldiers stationed at the post; a short time after the messacre, a force was on the scene to take the trail of the renegades, who, no doubt made good their escape into the hills, as news of a fight between the soldiers and Indians has not reached here. There are more than one hundred renegades in the band and it is feared many lives will be lost before they are rounded up by the Mexican soldiers, now on their trail.

by halves.
